Recognising the Risen Lord in the Eucharist

The Risen Lord appears several times to His Apostles & other disciples after His Resurrection. Their eye-witness accounts of their meeting with the Glorified Lord provide us with the basis & joy of our Catholic Faith that the Lord is indeed Risen! It is in the Eucharistic Sacrifice of the Mass that we encounter the Risen

Lord most immediately today. Just as the Apostles hearts & souls joyfully apprehended the Truth of the Lord's real & bodily presence, so we too, in Faith, apprehend the Mystery of Christ's abiding Precedence in the Eucharistic

On-Going Road Works on Wellington Road

Severn Trent Water have advised about major work being carried out on their water main where a small section is being diverted. They plan to start work from April 15th for 3 weeks. The work involves 2-way traffic lights & a footway closure outside the new housing development on Wellington Road opposite 289-297. Please be aware about possible delays & disruption.

Annual Thanksgiving Mass for Marriage
